

PREFACE

developing common language and a thesaurus but no real agreement.

One very unusual prototype RFID application relevant to residential HVAC systems was described at a recent trade show. Timely replacement of HVAC filters, though often overl several years if it moves smoothly and longer if delayed by regulatory issues. Pre-construction also includes the design of the house.

The Year One Progress Report stated that there is unce

September, 2003